GIRLS' TEAM WON

DEFEATED STANBERRY BY 23 TO 11 TUESDAY NIGHT.

EXCELLENT TEAM WORK

Threw Ten Field Goals to Their Opponents' Two, Indicating Relative Strength.

The basket ball game played at the Normal last night resulted in an easy victory for the local girls over the Stanberry high school. The final score stood 23 to 11 in favor of the Normal, and the fact that the winners threw ten field goals to their opponents' two indicates the relative strength of the squads.

The whole Normal team starred, and no one can be singled out as being superior to the rest. At center Miss Enslow took the ball over her taller opponent with ease. Her passing was at all times accurate. Miss Cox covered a big stretch of the court at extra center. Miss Taylor replaced Miss Cox near the close and played well.

The guards did exceptionally good work, as they were pitted against two brilliant forwards, and allowed them but two goals from the field. Miss Hise played her first game with the Normal girls last night, but was as steady as a clock. Miss Partridge also kept her opponent well covered. Misses Scott and Dykes were substituted at guard and did not allow a goal.

At forward Misses Palmer and Head had it all over the opposing guards and made goal after goal with little effort.

The Stanberry luminaries were Misses Redman at forward, who threw both field goals for her side, one a sensational long shot; Miss Jennings and Miss Hawkins.

The visitors seemed somewhat lost on the large floor, as they have been playing on a much smaller court.

The line-up follows:

Field goals—Palmer 6, Herd 4, Redman 2.

Fouls called—On Stanberry 11, on Normal 21.

Foul goals—Herd 2, Palmer, Stockton 7.

Referee—Kyger.

INTERESTING PROGRAM BY TRAINING SCHOOL

A very instructive and entertaining program was given in chapel Wednesday morning by the training school students of the Normal. A reading of the important events in the life of Washington was given by one of the pupils, and as he read each scene it was dramatized by others of the pupils. One of the most interesting parts of the program was the costumes. They were colonial in style and very correct as to detail. Professor Zimmerer designed them for the pupils, and they, with a little help from the student teachers, made the costumes themselves.

MARSHALL TO RESUME WORK ON THE NORMAL

Word has been received direct from Kansas City to the effect that Contractor Marshall has put his other work in shape, and will bring his men to Maryville in a few days to complete the work on the Normal building.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

P. E. O. Social.

The P. E. O. chapter will enjoy a social afternoon Saturday at the home of Miss Mabel Todd. Miss Todd and Miss Lela Bonewitz will be the hostesses.

M. I. Circle.

The M. I. Circle held its meeting with Mrs. James F. Cook, on South Buchanan street, Tuesday afternoon. Devotions were led by Mrs. W. B. Christy. The responses to roll call were current events. Two papers were given, one on "David Thoreau." by Mrs. Curtis Wray, and one on "Helen Hunt Jackson," by Mrs. T. K. Wray, which was followed by a discussion of "Household Economics," by the Circle, led by Mrs. F. M. Martin. Mrs. W. A. Bailey was critic. A social hour after the program, when the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Bailey, served a dainty two-course luncheon, was a departure from the Circle's custom and was very enjoyable.

Entertained Cosy Club.

Miss Clara Bellows, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Frank Bellows, entertained the members of the Cosy club Tuesday afternoon, and two other guests, Mrs. W. R. Smiley and Mrs. Virgil Keene. The guests occupied themselves with their needlework while they visited together. The hostess served a dainty luncheon. The members of the club are Mrs. George Bellows, Mrs. Charles Bellows, Miss Clara Bellows, Mrs. J. F. Colby, Mrs. Ernest Alexander, Mrs. George B. Baker, Mrs. Edward F. Wolfert, Mrs. S. G. Gillam, Mrs. C. C. Graves, Miss Allie Beal, Miss Bertha Beal.

Were Dinner Guests.

Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Lindenmeyer of Pickering were 6 o'clock dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. William Wallis, Sr., Tuesday evening.

Missionary Tea.

The missionary tea given by the ladies of the First Baptist church Tuesday night at the Conservatory of Music studio, Professor P. O. Landon as host, was well attended, considering the cold night, and a good collection taken. Mrs. Lee Harrel led the devotional exercises, Miss Hazel Everhart sang the solo, "Harken, O Ye Children," and Mrs. G. B. Holmes gave additional data regarding the work of the Baptist Publication society that was continued from a former meeting. Mrs. B. F. Craig gave an interesting talk on the work of the mountain schools in the south. Mrs. Craig and her husband were at the head of one of these schools in South Carolina for two years, and her personal experiences and her delineations of the character of these simple hearted, honest people were quite interesting. Orlo Quinn and Prof. P. O. Landon sang solos. A social time followed, during which coffee and cake were served.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

ARE STILL BEING ATTENDED BY LARGE CROWDS.

PREACHED GOOD SERMON

Rev. Parvin, the Pastor, in Charge of the Meetings Being Held This Week.

The revival meetings at the M. E. church, South, continue with interest, and the sermon Tuesday evening by the pastor, Rev. Parvin, was listened to attentively by a good sized audience. Rev. Parvin took for his subject "Repentance," his text being from Isaiah 55:6, 7.

In his able discourse Rev. Parvin said in part:

"As in other things, there are times of special opportunity in religion. Embrace such opportunity and salvation is comparatively easy. Deep conviction for sin is a good thing, but you can start to God and heaven tonight, even though you do not feel as deeply as some former time.

"God demands that you forsake your sins and will not be satisfied without it. Blackslidden church members sometimes say it is all right to dance, play cards and drink beer, but I never heard a penitent at the altar say it.

"The turning point in human destiny is not when the prodigal receives the forgiving kiss, but it is the moment when he says, 'I will arise and go unto my father.' We must do more than weep over our past sins and 'quit our meanness.' We must make restitution to God and man. Pay back that dishonest dollar or the dishonest nickel. Then bring your powers, which have always belonged to God, back to him, yielding yourself up to be His servant. He will save all who thus come unto Him, for He cannot fail to do so without breaking His word."

WAS IT ATTEMPT AT BLACKMAIL?

Quite a number of Maryville people living in the south part of the city and on East First street, near the hospital were puzzled on Monday morning to find a printed page of a paper, neatly done up in a wrapper, lying on their front porch or tucked in the screen door. There were six columns of a perfect jargon of "stuff" that sounded like the ravings of a person in delirium.

Each paragraph, and many of the sentences ended with a reference to some Scripture, sometimes several references were given.

Quite a number of people were alarmed by it, and some are inclined to think that it is an attempt at blackmail, because of the use of names of people who live in or near Maryville.

It is believed to be the work of a member of a family well known, who has been in the insane asylum at St. Joseph, and is still mentally "off." But where did he get it printed? is the question.

Officers are at work on the matter, and it is hoped their action will clear up the matter for the benefit of those who are nervous over it, as well as bringing to justice those who would be guilty of printing such stuff and putting the perpetrator of it all in a safe place for himself and all concerned.

FORGET IT.

There has been a lot of talking
On the streets of this old town,
'Bout Hez Rasco, 'bout his victims;
'Bout the stranger, 'bout the hounds;
And no matter where you see a crowd,
No matter where the place,
They're arguing and talking
On the phases of this case.

Now if we must be talking,
If we must break out in poem,
Let's talk about our Maryville,
Let's write about our home;
Forget this recent incident,
It brought us no renown;
Talk Maryville, write Maryville,
A bigger, better town

A FRIEND.

Alva Hill of Graham, a State Normal student, who has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Miller, on West Jenkins street, returned to his home Wednesday at the close of the winter term.

WAS CERTAINLY A FINE PERFORMANCE

The home talent show, "A Night in Bohemia," given under the direction of Glen Goff for the city charity board at the Empire theater last night, was well attended and was one of the best shows yet given in the way of a home talent performance. The songs were new and were sung nicely by members of the company. It is to be hoped that these boys will put on another show soon, as they made a decided hit with the theater goers last night.

MISSIONARY RALLY WAS A SUCCESS

The missionary rally and jubilee that was conducted Monday night and Tuesday at the First Christian church was highly instructive. The young ladies in charge, Miss Virginia Hearn of Lexington, Ky., and Miss Moore of Indianapolis, are cultured, able speakers and delighted all who heard them.

The reception Monday night preceded an address by Miss Hearn, who spoke of the work of the mountain schools. She conducted the Beckley school in Kentucky and her recital of some of the hardships endured by many of the mountain people in order to attend school was touching. The greatest obstacle to the work of the schools, she said, were the bad roads and almost impassable places for those who are cheerfully enduring them. Those who attended the Beckley school ranged in age from 6 to 45, and one year 150 were turned away because there was no room for them, and notices had to be placed on sawmills in that region to keep more from coming. She has seen men 35 years old turned away from the school with tears on their faces because it was their last chance to learn to read. The students walked from three to fifteen miles a day to and from school. One 6-year-old boy, who assisted in the janitor work to pay his way, was caught in a storm one morning and was whipped around by the wind in a mountain pass until he was so nearly exhausted that he fainted when he got to the school. Miss Hearn, when he revived, told him he must never start to school again when the clouds were coming up. And the brave little youngster said, "Well, I thought if you folks put a school away up here for us that I ought to be game enough to come."

Miss Hearn also spoke of the condition of the women and girls in the mountains. The girls marry very young in order to make room in the house and at the table for the younger children in the home.

"If we only had what is spent foolishly by Christian people, life could be happy and normal for these poor women of the mountains who are as kind, tender and loving as any to be found in the world. Their lives are so hard that I never saw a smile on the face of one of them past 20 years old, and they often wish their girl babies would die so they would be spared the life that inevitably lies before them.

Miss Moore gave just as interesting a talk on Tuesday afternoon on work she had experienced in Mexico and the border line of Texas.

The music for the meeting was given by the Circle quartet, Miss Eva Montgomery, Miss Gertrude Condon, Miss Alice Orcutt and Miss Litta Roelofson.

Tuesday noon the C. W. B. M. and Young Ladies' Circle served a luncheon for their guests in the church parlors, which made a nice social occasion.

Miss Hearn and Miss Moore left for Kansas City Tuesday night, where they will hold several rallies. They are detailed to hold 200 meetings in Missouri. This is a general movement to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the missionary effort that was taken up by the women in all denominations.

THE LENTEN SEASON

WILL BE USHERED IN WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1.

DULL IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Fasting and Abstinence From Worldly Indulgences for Forty Days.

Fasting will soon be the watchword in many homes. In commemoration of the fast of our Savior the Lenten season will be observed from Wednesday March 1st, to Sunday, April 9th. This is a season when all unnecessary functions of our worldly pleasure are discontinued and we abstain from indulging our appetites only to the extent that is necessary to sustain life. The followers of the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran faiths are especially observant of the Lenten season, and for forty days all of the true and loyal adherents to the precepts and tenets of these forms of the Lenten letters sent out by the religion will act in accordance with bishops of the dioceses and the synods to all ministers of the gospel who are under their guidance, says the Creston Advertiser-Gazette.

For this forty day period things are at a standstill in the society world. Dancing, card playing, theater going, and most every other form of pleasure is laid aside, and those persons so acting spend their time in the church, at home, or in other quiet abodes.

The season is ushered in with Ash Wednesday and ends Easter Sunday, the day of resurrection, when Christ arose from the tomb. The season culminates in the grand festive occasion on the morning of that day. The most solemn and impressive form of mass is sung in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches but in conjunction with this there is great rejoicing all over the Christian world.

The Lenten season is much later this year than last. However, last year it was earlier than it had been in many years. In 1910 Ash Wednesday fell on February 9 and Easter on March 27th, but this year Ash Wednesday is not until March 1st, and Easter Sunday is April 9th. Thus spring opens up reasonably early this year, and the ladies and gentlemen who wish to come out on Easter Sunday in their new togs will not be disappointed. The first festive day marking the opening of Lent is really Shrove Tuesday, or the Tuesday just previous to Ash Wednesday, but this is not generally observed.

In his official letter to the Catholic church the bishop sets forth the regulations of the Catholic church for the observance of Lent. He says:

1. Ash Wednesday falls on the first day of March.

2. According to the common law of the church all the days of Lent are fast days, except the Sundays.

3. All persons who have completed their twenty-first year, unless legitimately dispensed, are obliged to keep the fast.

4. The one full meal permitted on fast days is not to be taken till about noon.

5. Custom allows a cup of coffee, tea or chocolate, with a small piece of bread, without butter, to be taken in the morning.

6. In the evening a collation not exceeding the fourth part of an ordinary meal is allowed.

7. The use of flesh meat and fish is not allowed at the same meal during Lent, not even on Sundays.

The following persons are exempt from the obligation of fasting:

Persons under 21 yeare of age; persons having reached the age of 60 years; those who are engaged in hard work; the sick and convalescent; those, who through weakness, cannot fast without serious injury to health; mendicants who cannot count on a regular meal. All thus excused from fasting are not restricted to the use of flesh meat at only one meal on the days on which it is allowed. Those who entertain any reasonable doubt about their obligations to fast or abstain ought to apply to their pastors for advice or dispensation.

The following dispensations are granted:

1. The use of flesh meat is permitted during Lent at all meals on Sundays, and once a day at the principal meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of the Saturdays in Ember week and Holy week.

2. The use of butter, cheese, milk and eggs is permitted every day in Lent; the use of lard and drippings is also allowed in the preparation of permitted food.

3. Those for whom the hour of noon may be an inconvenient time for the full meal or dinner, may invert the order and take their collation in the morning and their dinner or full meal in the evening.

The time in which the faithful must comply with their Easter duty extends to this diocese from the first Sunday in Lent to Holy Trinity Sunday, both days included.

In virtue of special faculties given in a letter of the sacred congregation of the propaganda to the ordinaries of the United States on March 15, 1895, and renewed in 1905, permission to eat meat at one meal on days of abstinence is granted to all laborers.

From this permission, however, are excluded all Fridays in the year, Ash Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of Holy week and the vigil of Christmas. It should also be remarked that on those days on which the use of meat is thus allowed, fish and flesh cannot be eaten at the same meal.

This permission to eat meat on certain days of abstinence extends not only to the laborers themselves, but also to their families, so that every member of their families participates in the privilege of the adult.

Those who make use of this dispensation are most earnestly exhorted to perform some special works of penance, such as abstaining from the use of intoxicating drink or some other act of mortification.

MRS. HOMER FLOWERS DIED TUESDAY NIGHT

Mrs. E. L. Andrews of this city received a phone message at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning that brought the news of the death of her niece, Mrs. Homer Flowers, of St. Joseph, who died Tuesday night at 11:30 o'clock in a hospital in that city, after a two weeks' illness. The time of the funeral has not yet been arranged, as relatives have not yet been heard from.

Miss Fannie Andrews of this city, a cousin of Mr. Flowers, will attend the funeral, also his brother, Earl Flowers of Burlington Junction.

Mrs. Flowers has frequently visited in Maryville, before and since her marriage, which took place about seven years ago. She was about 27 years old. Mr. Flowers, a former Maryville young man, is chief clerk for the Swift Packing company of St. Joseph. He and his wife had acquired a nice home and had many friends, who, with the old Maryville friends, deeply regret to hear of his sad bereavement. Mrs. Flowers' mother, who lives in Chicago, was with her at the time of her death, also Mrs. Flowers' sister, Mrs. Elva Flowers of Anadarko, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Leiby and little daughters, Lura and Cecil, of Barnard spent Wednesday in Maryville. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wohlford and baby boy, Leland, also of Barnard. Mrs. Wohlford is their daughter.

FIND $3,500 IN MAIL SACK

Bob Burdette's Brother Proved Innocent of Theft After Thirty Years.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 22.—The Rev. Charles Edwin Burdette, brother of Bob Burdette, the humorist, has been vindicated after thirty years of any blame in connection with the disappearance of $3,500 from a registered letter package sent out by the Peoria postoffice, of which he was registry clerk.

The disappearance of the money had been a cloud on Burdette's life in this, his home town, and turned many of his old friends against him.

The money had been put in twelve registered letters by the late John Comstock. The evidence was all against young Burdette, who was working to get money to study for the ministry. A few years after the money was missed he left the postoffice and went to Brown university, then to Newton academy, and when he was ordained as a minister was assigned as a missionary in Asam, India. He now has a pastorate at Springfield, Mass.

Into the repair shop at San Francisco a few days ago an old battered sack was sent to be patched. The first man to inspect the sack decided it needed a new bottom and, with a knife, he ripped the leather bottom off.

Then he saw above it a big manilla envelope, caught by the corners, which served practically as a false bottom. He opened the envelope and found it to contain the twelve Comstock letters and the missing $3,500, which had been wandering about the country for thirty years. When the finding of the money was reported to the Peoria postoffice, friends telegraphed to the Rev. Mr. Burdette that the cloud hanging over him so long had been dispelled.

PROMOTER CHARGED WITH MISUSE OF MAILS

Frank C. Avery of Kansas City Arrested on Coast.

Kansas City, Feb. 22.—Frank C. Avery, who was arrested in San Francisco by Postoffice Inspector C. P. Johnson of this city, is charged with fraudulent use of the mails in the promotion here in 1909 of the Electric Construction company. Leslie J. Lyons, United States district attorney here, said that stock to the amount of $100,000 was sold.

"The advertised purpose of the Electric Construction company," said Mr. Lyons, "was to build the Interstate Electric railroad to connect Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo. The company is alleged to have put out $100,000 of worthless stock. Avery, it is charged, used the mails in the promotion of this company."

ACTIVITY IN GOULD STOCKS

Wall Street Thinks Missouri Pacific Will Go to Big Interests.

New York, Feb. 22.—Increased activity in the securities of the Gould railway companies served to again call attention to rumors of further absorption of these lines by Standard Oil-Kuhn-Loeb interests, a step in which was marked recently with George Gould's announcement of his forthcoming retirement from the presidency of the Missouri Pacific. Representatives of the Standard Oil-Kuhn-Loeb interests denied they had embarked upon a campaign for absolute control of the Gould properties or had in mind any transcontinental road from Denver, with these properties as a nucleus. Wall street believes, however, that before many months further radical changes of ownership, with more or less elimination of the Gould influences, will be shown.

State Department Makes Protest Against Wholesale Executions.

Washington, Feb. 22.—As the result of a protest registered by the British consul general at Port au Prince against the reign of terror in Haiti, the state department made representations to the Haitien government on the wholesale executions of revolutionary prisoners, advising the authorities to adopt a more reasonable course.

A TRIP TO THE SUNNY SOUTH LAND

W. A. Bailey, the well known Maryville contractor, who returned a few days since from a trip to St. Cloud, Fla., in the famous Kissimmee valley, has at our request written somewhat of his delightful trip to that wonderful southland. James Sage, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Sage of this city, accompanied Mr. Bailey, and invested in twenty acres of land and remained to engage in his work at carpentering, and will improve his land—an investment of incalculable value to the young man, who is only just out of his teens. Mr. Bailey had, previous to going on his trip to St. Cloud, purchased land near there, also a town lot. The town has grown so rapidly that his land now joins the town, and his town lot is on a corner of the principal street in the town. He was so well pleased with the country that he purchased more land in the Kissimmee Prairie country, and will return to St. Cloud some time in the early fall to spend the winter and further test the evident greatness of that country, and may eventually locate there. New potatoes and all other garden things were being daily used while he was there, the second yield of ripe tomatoes from the same vines that yielded first in December, luscious strawberries, and all the other good things of that season there he enjoyed. Two radishes, one weighing 10½ pounds and the other weighing 5¼ pounds, were on display at the Kissimmee Gazette office, that were raised by a gardener there.

Mr. Bailey has been a subscriber to the Kissimmee Valley Gazette and St. Cloud Tribune for time, and has watched closely the daily government weather observations. Through the summer months the temperature did not rise above 98 during the hottest part of the day, while at night the average ranged between 72 and 80. The ocean breezes from one side and the gulf breezes from the other keeps the air fresh and delightful through every season of the year, and in the warmest part of the year, even, it is delightful in the shade, and the nights are cool and pleasant. Mr. Bailey's letter reads:

"Accompanied by my wife, I left Maryville on Sunday morning, January 15, for Kansas City, for a two days' visit with W. F. Lucas and family while waiting for a company of men to take a trip with the Hunter Land company to southern Florida. I was met there by James Sage of this city, who accompanied me on the trip.

"There were about twenty-five men in the company, mostly from Nebraska, that met in Kansas City, on Tuesday, the 17th of January, for this trip south. One of the Hunter brothers, representing the Hunter Land company, and Mr. Seager, a whole-souled, good-natured fellow, the general western agent for the company, with headquarters at Omaha, met us in Kansas City to conduct us on the trip. We left Kansas City on the Frisco route, via Fort Scott and Springfield, to Birmingham, Ala. From Birmingham, via Atlanta and Macon, to Jacksonville, Fla., on the Southern Short line. From Jacksonville to Kissimmee, Fla., on the Atlantic Coast line.

"Through Alabama and Georgia we passed over a very rough country, arriving in Jacksonville on Thursday morning. From Jacksonville to Kissimmee we had our ride during the daytime, which was very satisfactory to us, for it gave the party a good opportunity to see the country, or a portion of it, at least as it is level timbered country. But we passed by many beautiful places and fine orchards of oranges and grape fruit, and many fine gardens on the roadside.

"We saw peach trees in full bloom and flowers in abundance. One place I noticed in particular was a large field of peas, with some twenty or more hands picking peas. Through this land of fruits and gardens we had a beautiful summer day's ride, arriving in Kissimmee—a beautiful little city of about 3,000 inhabitants—about 4 o'clock in the afternoon of Thursday.

"Somewhat tired from our continuous ride, we concluded to rest over Friday before continuing our journey southward. Here we concluded to take a run over to the new town and colony of old soldiers, St. Cloud, ten miles distant. We found it a thriving, prosperous little city of about 4,000, which has sprung up like magic in the last eighteen months. I received my mail, which I had ordered to this place, and among it was The Daily Democrat-Forum, and it was indeed welcome.

Friday evening, we—James Sage and myself—returned to Kissimmee to join the rest of our company on the trip south to look at the Kissimmee prairie, of which the Hunter Land company owns 125,000 acres. Our route was by boat over the beautiful chain of lakes, canals and Kissimmee river. First the Tohopekaliga, about twelve miles long, then canal to Cypress, then canal to Lake Kissimmee, the largest of the chain, which is nineteen miles long; then canal to Alligator lake and the rest of the way on the Kissimmee river, which is so crooked that it runs up stream about as much as down.

"We had the pleasure of taking this ride with Captain Johnson on one of his boats, and, allow me to say, that whoever has the pleasure of taking a boat ride with Captain Johnson will find him one of the best natured and generous men that ever sailed a craft. With his years of experience and a willing tongue to talk, to say that we enjoyed this trip with him would be putting it very mildly.

"We had a lively time shooting at ducks and alligators, which were plentiful. In our excitement we forgot all about it being the middle of winter, and had our coats off and sleeves rolled up ready for business.

"We arrived at our destination on the river about 4 o'clock Saturday evening. Were met at the landing by automobiles that conveyed up about fourteen miles to the camp of the Hunter Land company, where we found ourselves in the heart of the Kissimmee Prairie. After a good supper and genial chat around a camp fire we retired for the night. Bright and early Sunday morning we were up and ready for a ride over this beautiful prairie and it was certainly fine.

"A vast stretch of level country as far as one can see, covered with a fine growth of grass, with here and there a hummock to break the monotony. Occasionally there is a low place where the water stands, but there are no marshes or swamp places, as we would go right through them with the autos, all being good sandy bottom.

"Having thus put in the day, we were ready at night time for another good meal and a good night's sleep, which any one can enjoy in that delightful climate.

"Monday morning we started early back to the boat landing and soon were enjoying another fine ride up the river and over the beautiful lakes back to Kissimmee.

TO CLASS NEW CLASS AT NORMAL NEXT TIME

With the beginning of next term a new class is to be started at the Normal. It will be a class for the purpose of experimenting in balanced meals. Miss Anthony will have charge of it. Ten volunteers are asked to join the class and pay ten cents a day for lunch for five days. A perfectly balanced meal will be had for this amount, and no one article of food is to cost more than two cents. The purpose of the class is largely to determine what can be done by the Normal in the way of boarding students in the near future.

BILL TO ABOLISH LORDS' VETO

Measure of British Ministry Introduced in Commons.

BEGINNING OF HISTORIC FIGHT

Both Sides Are Determined and No One Professes to See Outcome of Big Battle to Make Radical Change in Constitution.

London, Feb. 22.—The government bill to abolish the veto power of the house of lords, which, if the government is able to pass it as it stands, promises to accomplish a historic change in the parliamentary system of Great Britain, was introduced in the house of commons by Premier Asquith.

No one professes to see the outcome of the constitutional battle. If the liberals have any thought of compromise they are keeping their intentions to themselves and the greatest controversy known in this country for several generations began with both sides apparently determined not to yield except to superior force.

A full house faced Mr. Asquith when he rose to make the customary explanation on the introduction of a measure of such moment.

The premier at once let the opposition know that he felt the country was behind him and therefore did not hesitate to reintroduce the bill without change from last year. The measure, he said, had gone before the electorate at the recent elections and had been indorsed by the return of its supporters to the house of commons.

Mr. Asquith declared that when the lords rejected the budget of 1909 they committed political suicide.

DEMOCRATS TO REVISE TARIFF

Number of Bills Will Be Introduced If Extra Session Is Called.

Washington, Feb. 22.—If an extra session of congress is called the Democrats of the house will set about at once to revise several schedules of the Payne-Aldrich tariff act.

An authoritative statement to this effect was given out by Representative Underwood of Alabama, who already has been selected as the chairman of the new committee on ways and means. It was made to correct an erroneous report which has gained circulation during the last few days. Underwood said:

"The statement that if an extra session of congress is called the house will not begin the work of revising the tariff is absolutely unfounded. The Democrats are pledged to revise the tariff, and if we go into an extra session the house unquestionably will pass some tariff bills revising some of the schedules of the Payne act downward before it adjourns."

GEORGE B. COX INDICTED

Grand Jury Returns True Bill for Perjury in Court Statement.

Cincinnati, Feb. 22.—George B. Cox, for years head of the Republican organization in Cincinnati, a leading factor in state and national politics, and president of the Cincinnati Trust company, was indicted by the Hamilton county grand jury on a charge of perjury. The basis of the charge is that Cox testified falsely before a grand jury on March 21, 1910, denying he had received any of the interest money which several banks, according to disclosures before the Drake investigating committee, paid to county treasurers as recompense for the deposit of county funds. The specific case upon which the jury acted took place in the administration of John H. Gibson, who served two terms as county treasurer. Gibson testified that Cox had received $48,500 of the $97,064 which the banks gave to Gibson as gratuities during the latter's service. Cox was released on $1,000 bail.

GARDNER MAKES DENIAL

Repeats Hearsay That Foelker Accepted $10,000 Bribe on Racing Bill.

New York, Feb. 22.—Charles H. Hyde, city chamberlain, and Frank J. Gardner, a former state senator, both denied that they knew anything about a corruption fund to defeat the Hart-Agnew racing bill, while he was serving as a state senator in 1908. But Gardner testified he had been informed that Foelker was promised $15,000, and took $10,000.

Both Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. George W. Hall, in whose presence Gardner and Hall were said to have discussed the distribution of the fund, denied there had been any such conversation in their hearing. Hall testified there had been.

HAIR ADVICE

VALUABLE TO THE PREMATURELY GRAY-HAIRED PEOPLE.

What a pity it is to observe so many people with thin and faded hair, and then realize that the most of these people might have a fine, healthy head of hair if they would but use the simple "sage tea" of our grandmothers combined with other ingredients for restoring and preserving the hair. No one, young or old, need have gray hair, weak, thin or falling hair, dandruff or any troubles of the sort if they would but use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. On the contrary, it is possible to have healthy, vigorous hair, of perfect color, by a few applications of this remarkable preparation.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly removes dandruff, leaves the scalp clean and healthy, promotes the growth of the hair and restores the natural color of hair which has become faded or gray. It is a clean wholesome dressing, which may be used at any time and with perfect safety. Don't neglect your hair. Start to-day with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur.

HISS IS HEARD IN THE SENATE

Incident Follows Remark by Bailey of Texas.

CAME FROM THE GALLERIES.

Texan Angered by Expression of Opposition to Lorimer Utters Reflection on Intelligence of Portion of Audience—Beveridge Makes Speech.

Washington, Feb. 22.—A long, sibilant hiss floated over the chamber of the United States senate, rising above the expiring applause with which the galleries had greeted a comment reflecting upon the intelligence of the occupants. So far as many who have long been connected with it could recall never before has a hiss been heard in that dignified body.

The incident followed a remark by Senator Bailey (Tex.). Senator Crawford (S. D.) had made a statement bearing upon the Lorimer case that brought forth an expression of approval from on-looking opponents of the Illinois senator, who sat in the gallery.

"No applause will be permitted from those in the galleries," said the vice president, severely.

"The applause," said the Texas senator, who was in controversy with Mr. Crawford, "is a fair measure of the intelligence of the audience."

From that portion of the audience which had not previously joined in the appaluse came a slight outburst, despite the presiding officer's caution, but as it trailed away out came the hiss.

No notice of it was taken by the senators or officers of that body.

Beveridge's Speech Long.

The day in the senate largely was devoted to the Lorimer case. Senator Beveridge spoke for more than four hours. He did not conclude and suspended with the understanding that he would continue today, after Lorimer's speech in his own behalf.

Senator Burrows, in charge of the question in behalf of the committee on privileges and elections, had previously given notice that after Lorimer's speech he would ask that a vote be taken.

There was general acquiescence in this plan. The new arrangement will give the Indiana senator the close of the discussion, unless some one assumes the responsibility for prolonging it to make reply to him.

The spirited part of the discussion came toward the close of the Beveridge speech and was begun by Gallinger. He interrogated Beveridge as to the source of the money which the latter had freely charged had been used in the Lorimer election. Beveridge replied it had been received from Brown, Broderick and Wilson.

"But where did Brown, Broderick and Wilson get it?" persisted Gallinger.

Beveridge confessed he did not know, and to assist him somewhat the New Hampshire senator suggested that as the men who had confessed to receiving the money were "a band of Mars" no one could tell whether there was any foundation for their charges in this instance.

Bailey Attacks Evidence.

In this connection Bailey undertook to show that nothing had developed to connect Lorimer with the use of money in the election. He mentioned it as a curious fact that this was the first case of the kind in the senate in which there had been no effort to show the source from which the money alleged to have been used had been derived.

Here it was that Crawford entered the controversy.

"It makes no difference where the money came from," he said, "if it was used for corrupt purposes and an election resulted from its use."

A burst of applause resounded from the galleries. The chair admonished the visitors that demonstrations of the kind are not permitted by the senate.

"Oh," exclaimed Bailey, who accepted the manifestation as against his position, "it is a fair measure of the intelligence of the audience."

Then the hiss was heard.

Many Women Now Doing Without False Hair.

Rats and other false paraphernalia for the upbuilding of woman's thinned out hair may be necessary, but the sight is far from pleasing.

With care nature can supply to most women all the hair necessary for attractive dressing.

Many thousands of women, refined and educated, have learned that it is not hard to have, and to keep an abundance of lustrous hair, if Parisian Sage, the hair grower, is used daily.

Since its introduction into America, Parisian Sage has become a prime favorite with women who desire luxuriant hair that will not fall out or turn gray, used daily it will keep the scalp immaculately clean; will stop itching and falling hair, and remove every particle of dandruff.

It causes the hair to grow because it is able to penetrate into the roots, where it, besides nourishing the hair, destroys the dandruff germs. The Koch pharmacy and druggists everywhere guarantee Parisian Sage to do exactly as advertised or money back. A large bottle only costs 50 cents, and it is a most invigorating and refreshing hair dressing. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

Easy and Quickest Way to Break Up a Cold.

If you want instant relief from cold in the head or chest, or from acute catarrh, try this:

Into a bowl of boiling hot water pour a teaspoonful of Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-me), hold your head over the bowl and cover head and bowl with towel. NEW TREATY WITH JAPAN

President Taff Sends Document to Senate.

IMPOSES NO UNDUE LIMITS.

Immigration of Japs Made Free of Restriction as Special Favor to Empire—Western Senators Will Strongly Oppose This.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The text of a new treaty with Japan, designed to replace that of 1894, and drawn with the special design of eliminating the restrictions upon immigration, was laid before the senate by President Taft.

The essential difference between the proposed treaty and the existing convention is said to be that it omits all reference to such restrictions and leaves to the national honor of Japan the enforcement at her own ports of the limitations upon emigration from Japan now expressly placed upon immigration to the United States.

The document provides that either country may renounce the treaty at the end of six months if it fails to operate as expected.

That the new treaty will encounter opposition seems certain, for even if it should be speedily reported to the senate from the committee without serious controversy within the committee room the western senators are expected to insist upon opportunity for debate which will develop the full extent of their opposition to the treaty.

FARMERS ON M'CALL BILL

Master of National Grange Appears Appears Before Senate Committee.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Farmers registered protests against the Canadian reciprocity agreement in the hearing before the senate committee on finance. Ex-Governor Bachelder of New Hampshire, master of the National Grange, made the opening argument and announced that if the committee had the time to hear them he would be followed by masters of granges of the several states as well as representatives of various state dairy and other associations.

The witnesses received valuable assistance from Senators Hale, McCumber and Smoot, who evidenced sympathy with their attacks on the agreement and aided them with questions. Senator Stone took the lead in cross examination and some interesting colloquies were heard.

Mr. Batchelder asserted that 6,000,000 farmers were united in opposing the agreement and said he voiced their protests against free trade in farm products while protection was continued on manufactured articles which the farmers are compelled to buy.

He declared Canada was the only country which the farmers had to fear and that free trade with that country meant that the farmers would derive no benefit whatever from the tariff law. He denied that cheap food would result from the consummation of the agreement.

"If this is an honest bill let it include free trade with Great Britain," said Mr. Batchelder.

By questioning, Senator Stone developed that Mr. Batchelder was not really in favor of free trade with Great Britain, and that he had no personal knowledge of the difference in the value of lands, the price of labor or the amount of taxes paid in Canada and the United States.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break, or head off these early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics.

Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child, if there is feverishness, night or day. Herein probably lies Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 5c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 48 Preventics. Insist on your druggists giving you

Preventics
